

WDFHFM 90.3
Airshift Playlist

Rob Nico
Saturday, November 5, 2005
2pm – 6pm

Song Title

Artist

Album

These are the songs that I played on my very first show on WDFH-FM. I started with The Beatles and ended with Wilco.

She Said She Said	The Beatles	Revolver
Pick Up The Change	Wilco	AM
Take It Easy/Love Nothing	Bright Eyes	Digital Ash in A Digital Urn
6 th Avenue Heartache	The Wallflowers	Bringing Down The Horse
The Beautiful Side Of Somewhere	The Wallflowers	Rebel, Sweetheart
Streets of Love	The Rolling Stones	A Bigger Bang
Six songs down and a whole bunch more to go.
Upfield	Billy Bragg	Still Looking For A New England
How Long Is Forever	Willie Nelson	Countryman
Day Is Done	John Prine	Lost Dogs and Mixed Blessings
The Painter	Neil Young	Prairie Wind
Dear John	Ryan Adams	Jacksonville City Nights

Ryan Adams sandwiched between two of his major influences, Neil Young, and Paul Westerberg. Ryan Adams released a double album "Cold Roses" in the spring and "Jacksonville City Nights" in the fall. There's talk that another record entitled "29" is coming out before year-end. Where does he find the time?

MammaDaddyDid	Paul Westerberg	Eventually
Alex Chilton	The Replacements	All For Nothing, Nothing For All
Sheena Is A Punk Rocker	The Ramones	Ramones Mania
Good Lovin'	The Rascals	Good Lovin' and Other Hits
Remember	The Raveonettes	Chain Gang Of Love
Ask Me Why	The Beatles	Please Please Me
She Just Wants To Be	R.E.M.	Reveal
I Fought The Law	The Clash	The Clash
20,000 Streets Under The Sky	Marah	20,000 Streets Under The Sky

Philadelphia's own Marah's 2004 release "20,000 Streets Under The Sky" is one of their best albums to date, and a new CD just out in October is called "If You Didn't Laugh You'd Cry."

Breathe Me	Sia	Six Feet Under: Everything Ends
Invisible Girl	Minnie Driver	Radio Remix
You Got The Silver	Susan Tedeschi	Hope and Desire
Soda	Marah	20,000 Streets Under The Sky
For Everyman	Jackson Browne	Solo Acoustic: Volume 1
Isn't It A Pity	Cowboy Junkies	21 st Century Blues
Night In My Veins	The Pretenders	Last Of The Independents
Via Chicago	Wilco	Summerteeth
I Lie	The dB's	The Sound of Music
California	Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers	Songs & Music From "She's The One"
While My Guitar Gently Weeps	The Beatles	The Beatles (White Album)
Rowboat	Johnny Cash	Unchained
Keep It Loose, Keep It Tight	Amos Lee	Amos Lee
Just Like A Woman	Bob Dylan	Blonde On Blonde
Amos Lee toured with Merle Haggard and Bob Dylan earlier this year. Amos Lee's self-titled album should show up on a lot of Top Ten Lists for 2005.
Watch Your Step	Elvis Costello	Girls, Girls, Girls
Alison	Elvis Costello	Girls, Girls, Girls
Anyway	Paul McCartney	Chaos and Creation In The Backyard
Can't Help Wondering Why	Blue Rodeo	Are You Ready
Tupelo Honey	Van Morrison	Tupelo Honey
Angeles	Elliott Smith	Good Will Hunting: Original Soundtrack
Down All The Days(to 1992)	The Kinks	Promotional Single
Solid Rock	Dire Straits	Alchemy: Dire Straits Live
What's Going On	Los Lobos	Live At The Fillmore
East	Marah	20,000 Streets Under The Sky
The Farthest Wave	Cathie Ryan	The Farthest Wave
Back On Top	Van Morrison	Back On Top
I'm Feeling You	Santana	All That I Am
Cracking	Suzanne Vega	Suzanne Vega
Scarborough Fair/ Canticle	Simon & Garfunkel	Parsley, Sage, Rosemary & Thyme
When I'm 64	The Beatles	Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Heart's Club Band

Happy Birthday Art!!! Art Garfunkel turned 64 today.

The Infinite Pet
The Ghost In You
Beautiful Girls
All Things New Again
Hermes
Don't Look Back
The Hardest Part
Passenger Side

Spoon
Counting Crows
Pete Droge & The Sinners
The Wallflowers
Santana
Lloyd Cole
Ryan Adams
Wilco

Gimme Fiction
Clueless:Original Soundtrack
Beautiful Girls: Original Soundtrack
Rebel, Sweetheart
All That I Am
Lloyd Cole
Jacksonville City Nights
AM

And then in The End...